

BCaBA Application for Voluntary Inactive Status

Overview

BCaBAs who are granted voluntary inactive status may remain inactive for up to four years. Individuals who have inactive status will be listed as inactive on the Certificant Registry and will not be verified as having active BACB certification. These individuals may refer to their certification as “BCaBA (Inactive).” An inactive certificant is strictly prohibited from practicing or billing as a BCaBA. In addition, inactive BCaBAs will not be required to submit recertification applications (including fees) while inactive.

BCaBAs who wish to request this status will need to (a) be in their recertification window and (b) have completed continuing education for their recertification cycle (prorated to the month). For example, if a BCaBA is 12 months into his/her current certification cycle, they would need to complete 10 CEUs by the time this application is submitted.

Returning from Voluntary Inactive: At the end of the four years, or when the BCaBA wishes to reinstate their certification, they will need to:

- 1) Submit a Request to Return from Voluntary Inactive Status (including fees) to the BACB and
- 2) If they have been inactive for more than two years, complete 8 hours of continuing education in the 12-month period prior to reactivation

After their certification becomes reactivated, their recertification cycle will restart where it was paused. For example, if the BCaBA went inactive eight months into their cycle, they will have 16 months until they need to recertify again (and meet the recertification requirements). After returning from voluntary inactive status, they may not apply for voluntary inactive status again until they have completed one full recertification cycle.

If the BCaBA fails to return from inactive status, their BCaBA certification will expire and they will be required to requalify under the then-current requirements to become certified again. Please note that individuals who reside outside of the US, Canada, Australia, and the United Kingdom are no longer eligible for certification as of January 1, 2023, including through our Qualify via Past Certification option.
