Task Level Feedback: Information on your performance by task is provided to assist you in identifying areas for additional study. However, you should use caution when preparing to take the examination again. We advise that you study all of the tasks; if you study only those for which you answered items incorrectly, you might perform better on those tasks but worse on others.

The tasks for which you answered items incorrectly are listed below. A copy of this report must be provided to your supervisor so that he/she will be able to inform you about and assess your performance in the areas in which you missed questions.

Implement continuous measurement procedures (e.g., frequency, duration).
 Describe behavior and environment in observable and measurable terms.
 Assist with individualized assessment procedures (e.g., curriculum-based, developmental, social skills).
 Assist with functional assessment procedures.
 Identify the essential components of a written skill acquisition plan.
 Prepare for the session as required by the skill acquisition plan.
 Use contingencies of reinforcement (e.g., conditioned/unconditioned reinforcement, continuous/intermittent schedules).
 Implement discrete trial training procedures.
 Implement discrimination training.
 Implement prompt and prompt fading procedures.
 Implement generalization and maintenance procedures.
 Identify the essential components of a written behavior reduction plan.
 Describe common functions of behavior.
 Implement interventions based on modification of antecedents such as motivating/establishing operations and discriminative stimuli.
 Implement extinction procedures
 Implement crisis/emergency procedures according to protocol.
 Report other variables that might affect the client (e.g., illness, relocation, medication).
 Comply with applicable legal, regulatory and workplace reporting requirements (e.g., mandatory abuse and neglect reporting).
 Comply with applicable legal, regulatory and workplace requirements for data collection, storage and transportation.
 Describe the role of the RBT in the service delivery system.
 Respond appropriately to feedback and maintain or improve performance accordingly.
 Maintain professional boundaries (e.g., avoid dual relationships, conflicts of interest, social media contacts).

You may retake the examination at any time before the expiration date of your original application, but no sooner than one week after your most recent testing date. The BACB will process your results shortly and, if you are still eligible, will send you a new authorization to retest. You will need to pay the $45 administration fee to Pearson VUE when making your retake appointment.
